Truly a breath of fresh air - minimal, modern design features coupled with clean lines, create a calm and comfortable space. Despite being in central Birmingham, this house enjoys a garden and feels secluded, nestled behind high hedges. The kitchen/diner is a good size, with an American fridge/freezer and a dining table for shared meals and late night catch ups. The generous lounge is a quirky space boasting two sofas and a large TV. The bedrooms are all uniquely decorated, showcasing the appealing marriage of block feature walls against fresh white in each. Two generous double rooms grace the middle floor, one with Juliette balcony doors. The bathroom is like a cool, clean spa – grey grout on subway tiles, with a separate bath and power shower. The top floor has 3 further rooms, with one presenting a quirky sloping roof and 2 beautiful skylights to enjoy sunrises over Birmingham.

Nearby, you can enjoy:

- *The Cube - Marco Pierre White Restaurant, Spa & Gym (6 minute walk)
- *The Mailbox - Harvey Nichols, BBC, restaurants, bars, canal (9 minute walk)
