Property Description

A recently renovated one bedroom first floor apartment situated on Haunch Lane, B13. Offered for sale with NO UPWARD CHAIN.

Main Particulars

A Most Conveniently Situated First-Floor Retirement Apartment

Located in the sought-after Home Meadow Court on Haunch Lane, this delightful first-floor apartment is designed for residents aged 60 and over (or 55+ if in receipt of disability benefits). Offered with no upward chain, the property provides an excellent opportunity for those seeking independent living in a well-maintained, warden-controlled development.

The apartment features a bright lounge with two double-glazed windows, leading to a fully equipped kitchen complete with fitted cupboards and included white goods. The spacious bedroom boasts built-in wardrobes, while the bathroom has been tastefully re-fitted. Residents can also enjoy the peace of mind provided by a secure intercom system and 24-hour Careline alarm service.

Communal Facilities & Location

The property offers access to a residents' lounge, launderette, and beautifully landscaped communal gardens. Parking for residents is available, and non-resident management staff provide part-time support.

Home Meadow Court is situated in Kings Heath, a thriving suburb of Birmingham just five miles from the city centre. The area is known for its vibrant high street, featuring cafes, restaurants, and shops, with excellent transport links into and out of Birmingham. Local parks, including Billesley and Chinnbrook, are just a short drive away.
